Prepare your Trees for Pests

There are many different insects that can cause damage to your trees from aphids and scale, to borers and leaf miners. Timing is everything when it comes to controlling these pests. Are you ready for a simple pest control option? Fertilome

Tree & Shrub Insect Drench is absorbed by the trunk of the plant or tree. Once absorbed, it moves up through the plant providing a 1 year insect protection. Fertilome Tree & Shrub Insect Drench even moves into new growth after application, thus protecting it, too. Use Fertilome Tree & Shrub Insect Drench as part of an overall tree and shrub health care program before problems start.

We recommend Fertilome Tree & Shrub for controlling Bronze Birch Borer.

What is That Lovely smell?

A wonderful fragrance has been filling the air! Our Canada Red Chokecherry are in bloom and smell glorious! These are available in tree form or multi-stemmed shrub to fit in any setting. They have some great surprises through the season. Besides fragrant flowers, the green spring foliage will turn to deep burgundy in summer. These trees offer great seasonal interest and contrast in the landscape. Come by to see and smell for yourself!

dimension to the landscape bed. I have them tucked in unexpected spots in my garden. One climbs behind a globe blue spruce. You do not even notice the trellis until the clematis reaches up and opens its beautiful purple blossoms. The contrast is stunning. Another great use for them is among perennials. Clematis on a 3-4 ft. trellis can be the perfect solution when you can't find the right tall perennial. Come take a look at our wonderful selection that are starting to burst with color.
